CAMPING RULES

The Caribbean Festival - festival camping is a big fraternizing community: to safeguard the great atmosphere, every year it is necessary to have some rules. The following are some guidelines, recommendations and some of the things that are not allowed, inspired by the same common sense that we all, including you festival campers all possess.

Enjoy your stay!

1. The entrance to the festival camping is only permitted to those persons in the possession of a valid festival ticket. Those who are unable to show a festival ticket at the entrance of the camping will be refused entry.
 2. Tickets for the festival itself can be purchased at presale or during the days of the festival at the entrance, tickets bought at the entrance are more expensive than those bought at presale.
 3. Admission to the camping: (price p.p.) if you arrive on thursday until midnight: 25 euro, if you arrive on friday until midnight: 15 euro and if you arrive on saturday: 5 euro (caravans, mobile homes and big vehicles included). An admission ticket to the camping can only be purchased on the spot, at arrival on the camping. A bracelet will serve as pass and has to be carried for the duration of the festival. Children start paying at the age of 12.
